

Canberra Jung Society

Event bulletin — May 2019

President's message

This is the first of our new monthly email bulletins to keep you up-to-date with the many events that the Society is running in Canberra. Please pass this email along to your friends if you think they would be interested.

All of our Friday night lectures and most of the workshops are held at the MacKillop Conference Centre, 50 Archibald Street, Lyneham.

Jeanne James, President

The Canberra Jung Society is a non-profit organisation providing contact for people interested in the psychological insights of the Swiss psychologist Carl Gustav Jung.

June events

The Power of Mandalas

Featuring Catherine Lambert visiting from Western Australia.

Friday evening lecture, 7 June 2019, 8-10pm

Catherine will share with us her own story about discovering the mystery and power of mandalas, and the impact it has had on her spiritual life and in working with others. Visit her website www.deepwaterdwelling.com.au

Cost: Jung Society members free; Guests $12; Seniors $10 ; Concession $6

Payment: Cash at the door or by bank transfer or credit card through the Canberra Jung Society website www.CanberraJungSociety.org.au

Catherine Lambert lives in Margaret River, WA, and is currently on leave from her position as a Uniting Church minister to complete her PhD. She is married with two teenage children and loves reading, movies, scrap booking and the musical theatre.

Saturday workshops, 8 June 2019 Mandalas, Music & Collages

Morning, 9:30am—12 noon Mandalas

Catherine will commence the workshop with a short presentation followed by a simple meditation to lead us into creating our own mandalas. All art materials will be provided.

Afternoon, 1pm—3:30pm Collage and drumming

Kirstin Robertson-Gillam will lead us through an afternoon of drumming and vocalizing and then expressing the effects on our psyche through collages. All drums and art materials supplied.

COSTS Half-day Jung Society members $40; Guests $50; Concession $35 Payment: Cash at the door.

Full-day: Jung Society members $50; Guests $60; Concession $45 Payment: Cash at the door

Bookings through the Canberra Jung Society website www.CanberraJungSociety.org.au

Bring something to share for lunch

Canberra Jung Society

Registered association A01840

PO Box 554, Dickson ACT 2602

Web: canberrajungsociety.org.au

Email: JungSocCanberra@yahoo.com.au

Phone: 02 6241 1099

You are receiving this bulletin because you have previously indicated your wish to keep in touch with the Canberra Jung Society.

July events

Featuring Dr David Russell visiting from Sydney.

Friday evening lecture, 5 July 2019, 8-10pm

Jung's Shadow archetype

David will speak about shadow work in psychotherapy and the art of dying drawing upon Jung's work. The shadow is perhaps the most difficult of Jung's archetypes to grasp. Our culture is very light oriented in that we crave understanding, insight and enlightenment. However, archetypal forces on a spectrum and the more we are drawn to the light the more our daily living accentuates the dark.

Cost: Jung Society members free; Guests $15; Concession/Seniors $10.

Payment: Cash at the door or by bank transfer or credit card through the Canberra Jung Society website www.CanberraJungSociety.org.au

David Russell is a past president of the Sydney Jung Society and is currently in private practice in Sydney City.

Saturday workshop, 6 July 2019, 10am—4pm

Jung's notion of the Soul

The focus of David's workshop is Jung's notion of soul. How soul manifests, demands attention, and desires deep satisfaction. A number of archetypal forces will be referred to with the dominant ones being the move towards the light (understanding, explanation) and the move toward the dark (soul-making, dying). The format of the workshop will be a mixture of presentation and discussion with personal experience being at the heart of all that is done.

6 points of Professional Development will be available for psychologists, therapists and counsellors.

Cost: Jung Society members $50; Guests $60; Seniors/Concession $45

Payment: Cash at the door or by bank transfer or credit card through the Canberra Jung Society website www.CanberraJungSociety.org.au

---

July event

Featuring Dr Kirstin Robertson-Gillam

Saturday workshop, 20 July 2019, 9am—4:30pm.

Myths, Mandalas & Drumming.

Kirstin conducts a series of four workshops based on Carl Jung's book: Four Archetypes—Mother, Rebirth, Spirit & Trickster. This workshop is the third in the series and features the Spirit archetype. You do not have to have attend the previous workshops to attend this one. Each workshop is self-contained with myths and legends appropriate to the archetype of the day. You will be able to draw several mandalas and participate in drumming sessions throughout the workshop. At the end of the day you will be able to reflect on the meaning for you of those mandalas within the context of that day's archetype. Art materials and drums will be supplied. For further information about these workshops, please contact Kirstin on email kirstinrg@bigpond.com or mobile 0409 533 466.

Cost: Jung Society members $70; Guests $60; Seniors/Concession $50

Payment: Cash at the door or by bank transfer or credit card through the Canberra Jung Society website www.CanberraJungSociety.org.au

Kirstin Robertson-Gillam is the vice president of the Canberra Jung Society. She has a private psychotherapy and counselling practice in Canberra. She is a former lecturer. Her PhD focused on reducing depression in mid to later life.

August event

Featuring Robert Tulip.

Friday evening lecture, 2 August 2019, 8-10pm
Jung's Analysis of the Soul

Robert will explore the implications of Jung's analysis of the soul for philosophy, psychology, politics and religion. His talk is based on the collection of 11 essays by Carl Jung published in 1933 under the title of Modern Man In Search of a Soul. This is a provocative theme covering the clash between modern scientific rationality and the understandings of human identity that emerged from religious and spiritual traditions.

Cost: Jung Society members free; Guests $15; Seniors/Concession $10.

Payment: Cash at the door or by bank transfer or credit card through the Canberra Jung Society website

www.CanberraJungSociety.org.au

Robert Tulip has a Masters Honours degree from Macquarie University in philosophy. He is now focusing on his intellectual interests especially the philosophical problems of psychology and religion.

6-week Dream Group

Facilitated by Dorothea Wojnar

Tuesday nights, 7:30—9:30pm

June 18 and 25, July 2, 9, 16 and 23.

Understanding and working with dreams is an important part of spiritual and psychological development. Jung considered that the purpose of dreams was to integrate our conscious and unconscious lives. Dorothea will teach you the process of active imagination developed by Jung to bring thoughtforms in the psyche into conscious mind. Further information about the group is available by phoning Dorothea on 0413 245 835.

Cost:

$10 at the door each evening with all proceeds to the Canberra Jung Society.

Location:

Wesley Uniting Church, 22 National Circuit, Forrest ACT, Vercoe Room

Bookings essential:

Phone Dorothea on 0413 245 835

Dorothea is a Jungian Analyst, counsellor and psychotherapist in private practice in Canberra. She has extensive experience as a group leader and therapist. Previously she has worked in a public health facility.

Annual membership gives you free entrance to all Friday night lectures and a reduced rate on Saturday workshops.

From 1 July 2019, the annual membership will be $75 ($60 Seniors/Concession).

The Canberra Jung Society does not endorse and is not to be held responsible for the content of any lecture or workshop, nor is any information or advice a substitute for professional counselling and therapy.